

PERELADA

DESDE 1923

Gran Claustro 2012

Brut Nature

When the USA president Dwight Eisenhower visited Spain in 1959, a small selection of Perelada's cava was chosen to be served at the reception banquet.

The absolute success of this experience gave birth to the idea of creating a high quality cava: the Gran Claustro. This is a handmade cava that ages in the cellar of the monastery annex to the Perelada Castle. The same cellar located under this splendid gothic cloister where the Carmelite monks made wine more than six centuries ago.

Tasting note:

Pale yellow colour, with hints of green. Clean and bright. It has a generous and steady bubble stream that forms a perfect crown. On the nose it there are ripe fruit aromas and ageing tones. This wine has a well balanced taste, slightly fruity, dry and smooth. It is also broad and long in the mouth.
